

Possessive Adjectives and Pronouns used to show ownership

Possesive Adjectives - Used before and with a noun.

	my your
	His / hers
	our you-alls
	theirs

It is my book - Es mi libro

It is his book – Es su libro

* Add and “s” if what you own is plural

They are my books – Son mis libros

They are his books – Son sus libros

Possesive Adjectives- Long form used when you want to be more expressive mine

	yours
	His / hers
	ours
	theirs

example: when talking about a special friend

mi amigo o un amigo mío my friend or a friend of mine

comimos con nuestros amigos / comimos con unos amigos nuestros we ate with our friends / we ate with some friends of ours

Long form always goes _____ the noun.

Possessive Pronouns - same as the long form of possessive adjectives

	His / hers
	theirs

- *agree with the noun they refer to
- *always used with El / La / los / las
- * replaces the noun

Mis libros son largos. ¿Cómo son los tuyos?
My books are long. How are yours?

No leas mi libro, lee el tuyo.
Don't read my book, read yours.
